Cruising Instructor Wanted

MacSailing is a well-established sailing school based in Vancouver, offering high-quality cruising and keelboat instruction on the waters of English Bay and the surrounding coastline. We're known for professional instruction, strong safety standards, and a supportive teaching environment.

We are seeking a Cruising Instructor to join our team for the 2026 season. This role is ideal for an instructor who enjoys hands-on teaching and helping students build real confidence and competence on cruising sailboats.

This position is part-time in April and May, transitioning to full-time from June through September.

Compensation

$26–$32 per hour, depending on experience and qualifications.

Responsibilities

- Deliver Sail Canada cruising courses to individuals and small groups
- Provide practical, hands-on instruction onshore and on the water
- Create a safe, engaging, and supportive learning environment
- Assess student progress and provide constructive feedback
- Promote a positive, inclusive, and professional sailing culture

Requirements

- Sail Canada Basic Cruising Instructor certification (or equivalent, subject to approval and registration)
- Prior teaching or instructing experience
- Strong communication and interpersonal skills
- Knowledge of local waters and sailing conditions
- Valid First Aid & CPR (or willingness to obtain)
- Availability for weekends and occasional evenings

How to Apply

If you're passionate about cruising and teaching, we'd love to hear from you.

Please email your resume, a brief cover letter, and proof of certification to info@macsailing.com
