Junior Instructor Wanted

Join MacSailing, Vancouver's premier sailing school, and be a vital part of our mission to inspire a love for sailing and foster skilled sailors. We're seeking a Junior Sailing Instructor to contribute enthusiasm and dedication to our instructional team.

Overview

We're looking for a Junior Sailing Instructor with Sail Canada certification or equivalent, and some prior teaching experience. This part-time role in May and June will transition to full-time hours from June to August 2024.

Responsibilities

- Assist in instructing sailing courses, ensuring adherence to safety standards.
- Receive mentorship from senior instructors.
- Contribute to the development of sailing programs.
- Participate in on-the-water and onshore training sessions.
- Support progress evaluations and provide constructive feedback.
- Collaborate with the team to enhance program quality.
- Assist in equipment and facility maintenance.

Requirements

- Sail Canada instructor certification (Equivalent certifications considered).
- Some experience as a sailing instructor preferred.
- Strong willingness to learn and develop leadership skills.
- Effective communication and organizational abilities.
- Basic knowledge of sailing techniques and safety procedures.
- First Aid and CPR certification (or willingness to obtain).
- Flexible availability, including weekends and evenings.

How to Apply

If you're a passionate junior instructor eager to contribute to our sailing community, please send your resume, a cover letter outlining your relevant experience and aspirations, and any available proof of certification to info@macsailing.com.
